Volunteer Opportunities in Old Town San Diego State Historic Park

New Opportunities for Volunteers in Old Town

San Diego – Do you have an interest in community service? A respect for history? An interest in early San Diego? Come be part of history!

Old Town San Diego State Historic Park attracts millions of visitors from around the world every year. Our volunteer program--part of the California State Parks' Volunteer in Parks program— provides opportunities for meaningful service in preserving our heritage and presenting quality programs for the community and our many visitors.

We are recruiting passionate people that have an interest in helping preserve and sharing the history and heritage of a unique historic community. Whether you want to interact with our guests as part of the living history program, greet visitors, give educational tours for school groups, or provide support behind the scenes, there are many opportunities to match your skills, abilities, and interests with the many programs and activities necessary to create engaging, individualized, and unique experiences for our visitors. We are especially looking for people interested in being tour guides.

Share your skills and learn new ones. Your contribution matters and you can make a difference!

Free training will be provided.

Have fun, meet new people, get involved! For more information about the opportunities available and to sign up contact Joe Vasquez at 619-952-3897.
